Corrected to May 10th, 1850.

A Union Jack with white border hoisted over or between Numeral Flags refers to the Members' Numbers,—under them, expresses the Names of the Honorary Members.

The Jack above a Numeral Flag to 9, and between Numeral Flags from 10 to 99 denotes the Names under 100, and the Jack above the Numeral Flags, the Names and Numbers above 100; for this purpose only, the Jack itself, when hoisted above Numeral Flags, will count 100—thus, if No. 101 be required, hoist Jack above, Cypher next, No. 1 under. If No. 110, Jack above, No. 1 in the middle, and Cypher under, &c.

The Navy demand to shew Numbers. A Union Jack over a Pendant Quartered Red and White.
